

THE RESEARCH CORPORATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII
STUDENT ASSISTANT HOURLY PAY SCHEDULE

Revised 07/01/2011

Pay Grade-Step	Pay Rate Eff. 07/01/11	Description
Student Assistant A1 A1-1 A1-2 A1-3 A1-4	$8.20 $8.40 $8.55 $8.70	The student is expected to perform routine tasks, which require no specialized experience or knowledge at the first step. The job assigned can be mastered with minimal instruction or demonstration. As experience is gained, the student may be expected to accomplish more varied tasks. The student is normally under direct supervision and has no supervisory responsibility. Examples of duties are filing, posting, shelving books, typing rough drafts from notes or making entries on card files (not expected to type finished correspondence, etc.), washing laboratory glassware, and manual tasks involving light physical effort.
Student Assistant A2 A2-1 A2-2 A2-3 A2-4	$9.00 $9.20 $9.45 $9.65	The student is expected to perform a variety of tasks, which require some knowledge of rules, procedures and policies, or have completed introductory level course work. The student accomplishes the tasks in accordance with established procedures. In many instances, the student has progressed from a Student Assistant A1 having gained knowledge and skills within the operation. A student in this class may supervise Student Assistant A1s. Examples of duties are finished typing according to prescribed format, reviewing documents or papers for accuracy and completeness, simple programming under supervision, library research requiring student to summarize materials, and situations requiring similar judgmental processes. Also in this class are positions requiring manual skills and arduous physical work.
Student Assistant A3 A3-1 A3-2 A3-3 A3-4	$10.00 $10.40 $10.80 $11.20	The student is expected to perform a variety of tasks that have some responsibility, requiring a special skill or knowledge, or have taken intermediate level course work. The student normally performs these tasks with minimum supervision and may have some supervisory and training responsibility over lower level student assistants. Included in this class are routine programming, laboratory work involving research and testing, research work involving interpretation of materials, word processing, and other technical work involving initiative and independent action. A student may temporarily be assigned to this class when performing duties of low-level clerical civil service personnel who are on leave.
Student Assistant A4 A4-1 A4-2 A4-3 A4-4	$11.45 $11.85 $12.30 $12.70	The student normally will have completed advanced level course work or have an undergraduate degree and perform tasks that require specialized skills or knowledge under minimal supervision and may have some supervisory and training responsibility over lower level student assistants. Tasks performed within this classification would normally be the type of tasks performed by low level BOR appointees or intermediate grade civil service positions, i.e., SR-13 or above. Included in this class are research requiring some analysis of data, long term management of an office in the absence of a full-time supervisor, training and supervision of several individuals, computer related work requiring substantial knowledge of a programming language or technical software, other work requiring the student to use independent judgment in decision making.

THE RESEARCH CORPORATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII
STUDENT ASSISTANT HOURLY PAY SCHEDULE

Revised 07/01/2011

Pay Grade-Step	Pay Rate Eff. 07/01/11	Description
Student Assistant A5 A5-1 A5-2 A5-3 A5-4	$13.35 $13.95 $14.45 $15.05	The student is required to perform highly specialized tasks requiring highly specialized skills and/or knowledge. Students will normally have completed an undergraduate degree, perform tasks independently, and may have supervisory and training responsibility over lower level student assistants. These are generally situations, which may require special recruiting to obtain the talent needed. Included in this class are research requiring final reporting, training and supervision of a substantial staff, independent management of a lab section for a low level course, technical programming, and other work requiring the student to make decisions which would be binding on a unit or requiring initiative. Such cases are normally expected to involve work, which is closely related to the student's academic program.
Student Assistant A6 A6-1 A6-2 A6-3 A6-4	$18.25 $19.20 $20.25 $21.20	This classification is reserved for lower-level graduate students performing duties normally assigned to a Graduate Assistant (Research Assistant or Teaching Assistant) or an intermediate level Board of Regent appointee. Students are expected to have substantial responsibility for course, program, project or departmental decisions. Students in this category would usually have completed an undergraduate degree and be near completion of a Master's degree. They would be performing duties independently and may supervise others.
Student Assistant A7 A7-1 A7-2 A7-3 A7-4	$22.20 $24.00 $25.80 $27.60	This classification is reserved for higher-level graduate students performing duties normally assigned to a Graduate Assistant (Research Assistant or Teaching Assistant), a low-level faculty member or an intermediate level Board of Regent appointee. Students on this level must possess highly specialized skills not normally found in university students. Included in this class are research that requires student to do highly skilled analysis and writing of a publishable nature, computer programming that requires the knowledge of several languages or technical software, or possess skills that would demand this level compensation in the local market. They would be performing duties independently and may supervise others. In order to obtain this pay level, hiring department must be able to provide some evidence of comparative market wages.