ETHICS TRAINING FOR STATE EMPLOYEES – REGISTER NOW! August 2014

HAWAII ISLAND (Hilo) and MAUI (Kahului)

Also coming soon: Ethics training on Oahu, Hawaii Island (Kona), and Kauai

The Hawaii State Ethics Commission is offering ethics training classes in August to state employees on Hawaii Island (Hilo) and Maui (Kahului). The classes will provide an overview of the state ethics laws that apply to all state employees. Topics include conflicts of interests; gifts and the reporting of gifts; misuse of official position; misuse of state resources; and post-employment restrictions.

Who should attend this class:	State employees who have not previously attended an ethics training class or who would like a refresher class on ethics
Length of class:	1.5 hours
Class dates, times, locations:	See attached Schedule of Ethics Training Classes (with links to online registration).
How to register:	Register online, call the Hawaii State Ethics Commission at (808) 587-0460, or email the Commission's office at ethics@hawaiiethics.org . To register groups of more than 10 employees, call the Commission's office at (808) 587-0460.
Persons in need of special assistance:	If you require special assistance or auxiliary aids or service (such as a sign language interpreter, large print materials, or wheelchair accessibility), please indicate so on your online registration form, or call the Commission's office at (808) 587-0460.
