

1.020 Projects Administered by RCUH

RCUH provides administrative services to the University of Hawaii (UH), the State of Hawaii, and other sponsors for research and training projects that are within the mission of RCUH.

I. University of Hawaii

Projects administered for UH are governed by an Internal Agreement between UH and RCUH, which establishes the roles and responsibilities of each of the parties. Types of UH service ordered projects are as follows:

- A. Extramural Projects – Projects funded through contracts and grants awarded to UH from federal and other external sources. The UH is accountable to the sponsors for deliverables and compliance of award terms & conditions. Refer to Policy 1.100 UH Extramural Service Ordered Projects.
- B. Intramural Projects – Projects funded through UH Research and Training Revolving Funds (RTRF) or Tuition and Fee Special Funds (TFSF). Refer to Policy 1.200 UH Intramural Service Ordered Projects.
- C. Revolving Account Projects - Self-sustaining, income generating projects that support the research and training activities/programs of UH. Refer to Policy 1.300 Revolving Account Projects.

II. Direct Projects

Direct Projects are non-University of Hawaii Projects where RCUH enters into a contract/agreement with a government department/agency or non-profit organization to provide administrative services, or is the direct recipient of a sponsored award.

Refer to Policy 1.400 Direct Projects.
